

ESTATE NAVIGATION WORKSHOPS

Practical tools for professionals supporting families through estate and end-of-life transitions.

Families facing aging, illness, or death are often overwhelmed by paperwork, decisions, and emotional strain. Staff are asked complex questions every day yet rarely have a clear, consolidated resource to offer.

Sell Pops Place Estate Navigation workshops provide front line professionals with simple, practical guidance they can share with families who are suddenly responsible for “figuring everything out.”

WHO THIS IS FOR

Organizations whose teams regularly support individuals and families navigating:

- Aging and senior transitions
- Serious illness or end-of-life care
- Estate, household, and property responsibilities

(Common audiences include hospice and palliative care teams, senior living staff, social workers, and care coordinators.)

WHAT THE WORKSHOP COVERS

- Essential document and information checklists
- Key steps in estate and property transitions
- Common (and costly) mistakes to avoid
- How to help families understand next steps
- Clear handouts staff can share with clients

FORMAT

- 60–90 minute sessions
- In-person or Zoom
- Interactive and discussion-based
- Includes printable resource materials

Participants leave with ready-to-use tools that reduce confusion, support families more effectively, and make difficult transitions easier to navigate.
